PORTS OF CALL

Valencia, Spain

Renowned as the birthplace of paella, Valencia is also famed for its unique mix of Baroque cathedrals, futuristic architecture, lively plazas, lush parks, and sprawling beaches.

Ibiza, Spain

A playground for European bohemians in the 1960s, today Ibiza—nicknamed the “White Island”—is a holiday hotspot with whitewashed houses, a beach-blessed coastline, bars, restaurants, and chic shops.

Alicante, Spain

The capital of Spain’s radiant Costa Blanca, Alicante exudes a rare beauty. Old-world Spanish charm and sophisticated Mediterranean flavor meet in this beach resort, home to one of the largest medieval fortresses in Europe.

Málaga, Spain

Boasting over 2,800 years of history and one of Europe’s oldest cities, Málaga is rich with archaeological monuments woven throughout tree-flanked, cobblestone streets, and lovely gardens.

Gibraltar, UK

Between Europe and Africa, the Atlantic and the Mediterranean, find a slice of England in a town on the southernmost tip of Europe. Gibraltar was one of the world’s most famous strongholds and is perhaps best known for the Rock of Gibraltar, a massive limestone ridge which defines its landscape.

Cádiz/Seville, Spain

A melting pot with a storied past, Cádiz is an ancient port with a waterfront dotted with gracious squares and flower-filled parks. Its old town, alive with bustling markets, enchants all who visit this Andalusian jewel.

Lisbon, Portugal

Europe’s second-oldest capital is a city of beauty and history, with yellow vintage trams gliding through its medieval streets and wrought-iron balconies overlooking the cobbled Alfama district.
